Immense Crowd Expected in Marion When Republican Nominee Is Formally Notified

Lincoln, Neb., July 21.—The Prohibition National convention today adopted a resolution tendering the party's Presidential nomination to W. J. Bryan, despite the fact that a communication from Mr. Bryan declaring he would decline, was read. Only six of the more than 200 delegates out voted the resolution. The resolution only tendered the nomination to Bryan and he will not be considered as actually nominated until he accepts.

A letter from Charles W. Bryan, brother of William J. Bryan, was read minutely in yachting events — a to the convention, asking that his name be not mentioned in connection with the nomination and that the Calverwood resolution should not be passed.

After considerable debate, C. W. Howard, a New York delegate, read the following telegram from W. J. Bryan:

Prohibition Convention, Lincoln, Neb.

"I appreciate your confidence in me. Please see my brother, C. W. Bryan. He will fully explain why acceptance is impossible."

The telegram was in reply to one Mr. Howard sent to Mr. Bryan yesterday asking if he would accept the nomination.

C. W. Bryan, in his letter, said, "Kindly request members of the convention to omit Mr. Bryan's name from consideration in connection with the nomination or in the adoption of such a resolution."

H. P. Faris of Missouri declared that Mr. Howard "had come here purposely to prevent a nomination and had held many conferences with Charles Bryan to that end."

Delegates shouted that they were "not interested in Charles Bryan but in William Bryan."

Miss Marie Brehm then relinquished the chair and placed Bryan in actual nomination, declaring he "must not be merely tendered the nomination, but actually given it."

A parade led by the Missouri delegation was started immediately. South Dakota joined and then all delegations fell in line. Someone started playing "The Star Spangled Banner" on a piano, and the delegates whooped and yelled. The piano continued playing "My Country 'Tis of Thee" and then swung into "A Ho! Ho! Time in the Old Town Tonight." Someone grabbed Howard and forced him into the parade.

Spinners and ballooners — and when she did get them out there was a great gap of daylight between them. Resolute held her own on the home stretch until Shamrock IV filled this gap with a little triangular jib sail.

This seemed to help her immensely and she began to close up the interval until she had passed the defender. When they had crossed the finish, both yachts hoisted the "C" flag that indicated unwillingness to race tomorrow, and it was announced the next start would be Friday. Later it was announced Shamrock was to be placed in drydock tomorrow, presumably for cleaning and polishing her hull.

Resolute won by seven minutes, one second, corrected time; elapsed time.

Today's tie, boat for boat, was the first in the history of the cup races.

The finish of the first race won by Resolute in the 1920 regatta not only recalled but surpassed the contest between Shamrock II and Columbia in 1901, when the racers finished two seconds apart.

"A Beautiful Race," Says Tom."

On Board Victoria, July 21. — The confidence of Sir Thomas Lipton, expressed following Tuesday's race, that Shamrock IV would lift the cup, was not shaken by today's result. He announced at the conclusion of the contest that "Shamrock was all right."

"I like a good fight. It was a beautiful race, a close finish, and the winner deserved it. If I am fortunate enough to win, it will make me very happy, but the victory will be all the more enjoyable if my opponent has had a look in. I am just as confident that I will carry the cup with me on Shamrock IV and scud away."

Shamrock IV quickly forsook her short tacks and gave chase. She gained slightly on the reach, but Resolute beat her to the mark by two minutes and four seconds, made a close turn to the windward and broke out her

RESIST PROFESSIONAL PRESSURE

For Most Part, Traders Espouse the Short Side, but Make Little Impression.

New York, July 21. — The only noteworthy feature of today's stock market, apart from the very limited dealings, was the stout resistance offered to professional pressure. For the most part, traders espoused the short side, but made little impression, save in isolated instances.

Railway shares led the market, so far as the list displayed any leadership or definite trend. The recovery of transportation issues suggested a possible adjustment of the more important differences now existing between the railway brotherhoods and executives. Advices from Washington strengthened the hope that the Interstate Commerce commission is likely to take early action on the request of the railroad heads for increased freight and passenger rates and a possible baggage tax.

The usual favorites in the industrial and special divisions did little more than mark time, although shipplings and express shares made substantial advances. One of the few exceptions to the higher tendency was the sugar group, in which prices fell violently in sympathy with a sharp break in the raw product.

Reviews of conditions in the steel industry referred to increasing signs of reaction in allied lines of trade. Gradual improvement in the freight situation is expected, however, in connection with the advance in railroad wages.

Liberty bonds were firm, but most domestic issues, industrials as well as railroads, showed nominal gains or declines excepting Virginia deferred 6s, which were strong.

Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

To Preach in Lumber Camps.

Rev. E. O. Colbeck, pastor of the Baptist church, and his family have gone to Bigwood, Ontario, where he will take charge of religious work among the lumber camps for four weeks.

At the Universalist church on Sunday next, Rev. Lyman Ward, Camp Hill Institute, Alabama, will deliver an address, which will undoubtedly be interesting and instructive. Everybody welcomed.

Personals and Locals.

Ruth Light spent part of her vacation with her friend, Lila Hinman. — Frank Wilcox of Middletown visited with relative and friends in town last Thursday and Friday. Frank has a good position with the Borden's at Middletown. — Mrs. H. S. Matteson and Miss Mabel Grafton are in Oneonta this week attending the Chautauqua. — Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Carpenter are visiting their son, Frank C. Carpenter, and family, at Cooperstown this week.

SERIOUS HARTWICK ACCIDENT.

James Ainslie Has Left Arm Nearly Severed in Saw Mill.

Hartwick, July 21. — The saw mill of Ainslie Brothers in this village was the scene of a very serious accident this morning at about 8 o'clock. The mill had just been put in operation for the day and James Ainslie, one of the members of the firm, was trying to place a belt on the lathe saw while it was in motion. In some way his left arm slipped and came in contact with the saw above the elbow on the inside of the arm, cutting through the muscle and just grazing the bone.

The injured man at once started to run to the office of Dr. Schoolcraft, but got only as far as the residence of C. R. Burch, where he collapsed from loss of blood. Dr. Schoolcraft was at once summoned and gave first aid, after which Mr. Ainslie, accompanied by his wife, his brother, Robert, and the doctor, was taken by Carl Perry in his touring car to the Thanksgiving hospital at Cooperstown, where Dr. Arwell, assisted by Dr. Schoolcraft, gave the needed surgical attention. The wound was brought together nicely and the condition of Mr. Ainslie is said to be very favorable.

Mr. Ainslie is about 30 years of age, married and has three children. Many friends regret the accident and will hope for his complete recovery.

Thrust Pitchfork Through Arm.

Mrs. Charles Stoddard met with a painful accident late today. She was assisting in drawing in hay and when a pitchfork slipped from the load a helper seized it and in attempting to thrust it securely in the load drove it through the forearm of Mrs. Stoddard, the arm not being seen in the darkness. Dr. Schooncraft attended her and unless infection follows anticipates no serious trouble, the times passing through the fleshly part only and missing the larger arteries and veins.

"CAN'T CUT OFF MY LEG SAYS RAILROAD ENGINEER"

"I am a railroad engineer; about 20 years ago my leg was seriously injured in an accident out West. I got an operation and the doctor to amputate it. I was told it would be impossible to heal the wound. I have tried all kinds of salves and had many doctors in the past 10 years, and to no avail. I have tried to get an OINTMENT on my leg. You cannot imagine my astonishment when I found it was doing what over 100 things had failed to do. My leg is now completely cured." Miss Hauff, 330 Myrtle Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

"It makes me feel proud to be able to produce an ointment like that," says Rev. Mr. Stoddard. "Not only for the amputation of my leg, but for old sores and ulcers, but for eczema, salt rheum, ulcers, rashes, skin and blood, bleeding oritching piles, and I put up a big box of ointment. A price all can afford, money and money back from your druggist if not satisfied."

COOPERSTOWN IS HAPPY.

Hope's Repairs to Trolley Track Will Soon Be Completed.

Cooperstown, July 21. — Residents living on Chestnut street will rejoice to learn that prospects are bright for early completion of the repairs being made to the trolley track on that thoroughfare, which for the past three months has been partially closed to traffic. A shortage of spikes has prevented completion of the repairs, but General Manager C. A. Graves, of the Southern New York railway, announced tonight that he expected a shipment within a few days. He also announced that when the spikes arrived a competition would take place between two forces of men to see which would make the best progress in finishing the track. One force will start at each end of the track and work toward the center, the one getting there first winning. A cash prize will be donated the victorious gang.

Lovely Charlotte Walker is "Eve"

Charlotte Walker, famous star of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," and just recently of the original New York production of that sparkling comedy, "Tea for Three," is the ideal embodiment of "Eve Ricardo" as visioned by the author. Witness this quotation from the characterizations of the script:

"Piquant, daring, sympathetic; churned into emotion by music and the beauties of nature; meeting life clean, sweet, eager and curious; ready for adventure and on the lookout for romance with a big P; as yet unaware of her power to lead the men who love her to splendid things or to send them into the depths." Miss Walker's interpretation of "Eve" adds new laurels to those she has already won in legitimate drama.

"Eve in Exile" is daringly unconventional. It abounds in unusual, bizarre situations. It is spicy without being risque—thrilling without being over-melodramatic. It will offend none and yet it is sure to attract thousands. It is unquestionably Cosmo Hamilton's greatest story to date.

FAIR CO-OPERATION.

The latest bulletin of the division of foods and markets notes the fact that during the past week there has been a surplus of vegetables in the wholesale markets of New York city. So low, in fact, have wholesale prices been that beets have sold for two cents a bunch, carrots for one cent, lettuce for 50 cents a barrel, radishes as low as half a cent a bunch, and spinach at from 25 to 50 cents a crate. Yet, despite these low prices to the truck raisers, the demand in the city has not been increased to any material extent, largely, the report says, because the retailer is not giving the public any benefit of the lower prices.

Here is a point where the heavy hand of the government might well strike at profiteering in the city of New York. It is not to the legitimate advantage of anybody if large supply and consequent low prices to the producer is not to benefit the consumer at all, but is to be absorbed between the two ends of the transaction. What is needed is co-operation along the whole line, whereby the farmer may get a fair price, supply and demand being considered, the middleman a reasonable profit, and the bulk of any reduction passed on to the consumer.

It plans like that which on Saturday took the last cent of profit in production, and more from the farmer, and in the end exacted the last cent of tribute from the New York consumer, are to be continued, then it may well be that the producer-to-consumer plan may presently have wider opportunity, with the result that the middleman may be largely if not entirely eliminated.

THE FOOLISH PEASANT.

Once upon a time there was a peasant who said it was too cold to go out into the woods to chop large logs for the fire. So he conceived the idea of chopping up the furniture for that purpose. In a short time he had disposed of the chairs and tables—and then, being cold once more, he took out the window frames and burned them, and after the window frames, the doors.

These being burned, he was colder than ever, of course. Thereupon he started to tear down the house and burn it piece by piece until, at the end, he had neither house nor heat.

The folly of this peasant is no unlike that of the person who, for frivolous reason, seizes his Liberty bonds which, by painstaking thrift and sacrifice, he acquired during the war to be his protection for the rainy day.

He is disposing of a sheltering roof and knocking out the door that might serve later to help keep out the wolf.

A Liberty bond is capital. No prudent man or firm ever dissipates capital, for it is the foundation on which a business is based. A firm that begins dipping into capital for running expenses is ready for bankruptcy and ruin.

Don't spend your Liberty bonds. To do so is like burning down the house to keep warm.

CLAIMS AGGREGATING $80,000.

Presented by Attorney Charles C. Flaeisch Against D. & H. Company.

As a result of the automobile accident on the crossing at the lower end of the village of Unadilla a few weeks since, in which Dr. and Mrs. Woods of Delhi were killed and Miss Sanford of Tenafly, N. J., was seriously injured, Hon. Charles C. Flaeisch of Unadilla having been retained as council, claims aggregating $80,000 have been presented to the D. & H. company.

Mr. Flaeisch is acting for Halladay Woods of Utah, the son, who has been named by the surrogate of Delaware county as administrator of the father's estate, for Ebenezer Laddow of Delaney, the administrator of the estate of Mrs. Woods, who survived her husband by a few minutes and for Miss Edna L. Sanford of Tenafly, N. J.

Attorney Flaeisch is authority for the statement that there is no foundation for the statement that a freight train was passing just prior to the approach of the passenger train. He avers that one was east of the crossing but near the station and did not pass until some time after the accident. He also has bystanders and passengers on the train who say no whistle was blown and no bell rung as the locomotive approached the crossing. The company has not signified its attitude upon the matter of the claims. They should be effective in securing the placing of a flagman at the crossing which is conceded a dangerous one.

His Conclusion.

"I hear that the boss is going to employ women bill collectors."

"Well, if a woman is as good at running down a bill as she is at running one up, the idea is sure a winner."

PRESS AND PUBLIC OPINION

Nothing in the Name.
Linking the word "Farmer" with the word "Labor" in the name of the new party, and even giving it first place in the combination, failed to catch the farmers at the convention, and will doubtless make an equal failure with the farmers in their homes. Even the Nonpartisan leaguers could not stand for the strictly class party the radical leaders insisted upon forming. The Committee of Forty-eight, after becoming decimated and demoralized by coqueting with the radicals, found itself so shot to pieces that it adjourned without a candidate and without hope. The single-taxers, who are as much one idea men as the radical labor group are one class men, could not coalesce with the latter or anybody, and went their separate way with a candidate of their own, whose name the majority of people cannot remember overnight. The Nonpartisan leaguers also pulled out of the proposed combination and are standing in lofty solitude behind LaFollette, who, however, has declined to stand in front of the league. Even the World war veterans, who exist in name chiefly, the vast majority of the former soldiers belonging to the non-political orders of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, faded away, as did also the group which called themselves the "People's party," whatever they may mean by it.—[St. Louis Globe-Democrat]

Memphis Follows Boston.

Boston greets Memphis, Tenn., in the midst of what seems to be an immediately successful resistance to just such an attempted dictation as we had to deal with in the case of the police strike. In Memphis it is the city's firemen who have struck for higher pay. And the public spirit of Memphis instantly rises to the occasion. The young men of the city are performing the functions of firemen with success, and the militia are patrolling the streets.

Whether in Tennessee or in Massachusetts, North or South, the American people are the same—they regard the public service as a public trust, not to be abandoned or paralyzed in the assertion of a personal grievance.—[Boston Transcript.

WADSWORTH DECLINES TO DEBATE SUFFRAGE

Doesn't Approve of Debates in Political Campaigns; Won't Withdraw Candidacy

Geneva, July 21.—Senator James W. Wadsworth Jr., in letters made public here tonight, replied both to George Henry Payne of New York city, declining his invitation to debate the suffrage issue with him, and to William H. Anderson, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, declining his suggestion to withdraw as a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator "for the good of the Republican party."

Senator Wadsworth said in his letter to Mr. Payne that during the coming campaign he intends to discuss his vote in opposition to the woman suffrage amendment to the federal constitution, as well as "matters of profound importance to the future of the country." He added, however, that he has "never thought much of joint debate in political campaigns, but believed it wiser "for each candidate to discuss the issues in his own way and in his own time. The whole campaign will constitute, as it were, a joint debate."

Senator Wadsworth added:

"With respect to your observations concerning the recommendations of a candidate for senator at the state convention, permit me to assure you that I have neither requested nor suggested that I be recommended by the convention as the party's candidate. • • •

My attitude for many months past has been one of entire willingness to take my candidacy direct to the primaries and I shall make no complaint whatsoever if the convention refrains from recommending any candidate for senator."

To Mr. Anderson, Senator Wadsworth said:

"I shall not withdraw. There are several issues of immense importance to the state and country which must be decided in the approaching campaign. One of them is whether or not irresponsible and reckless agitators can succeed in their efforts to terrorize men in public life into abject submission to their will and thereby destroy popular government. I entertain profound convictions upon this matter and I propose to stand by them. The people will decide."

Norwich Refunds Balance in War Chest.

Beginning this morning the Norwich War chest will pay back to subscribers the sum remaining on hand after all expenses and contributions from that city to the general war relief fund have been paid. The balance to be paid to the subscribers is $13,920.67, but in addition to this, many subscribers to the chest already had requested their share in the distribution should be given to organizations indicated by them. Accordingly the American Legion receives $6,257.97, the Near East relief $489.16, Norwich Hospital $354, American Library association $64.40 and the Chenango Valley home $22.40.

HORKE VINO CASES GO OVER

Further Hearing Set Down by Consent for Next Monday Morning Before Justice Kellogg — Other Proceedings.

In accordance with a previous order, District Attorney Pierson of Cooperstown and the attorneys representing the four parties from whose premises considerable quantities either of Horke Vino, or in some cases of other alcoholic preparations, had been taken by the city police, appeared yesterday before Justice Kellogg at supreme court chambers in Oneonta. The return was on an order to show cause why the district attorney should not be allowed to retain the seized goods in his possession pending trial of the actions against the several defendants.

The appearances in the several cases were as follows: District Attorney Adrian A. Pierson for the people, George L. Gibbs esq. for Ira Osterhout and Fred Gardner, Hon. George L. Boeck for Pietra DeNigris, and Edson A. Hayward for Tony Molinari. Mr. Boeck also appeared as special counsel for the manufacturers of Horke Vino, but stated that the desire of the company to defend would depend upon the attitude of the district attorney as to the sale and use of this preparation. Concerning this Mr. Pierson declined to make any statement.

By agreement between the district attorney and the attorneys for the above named parties, the hearings in the four cases were set down for Monday, July 26, at 2 a. m. before Justice Kellogg at chambers in Oneonta.

Chenango Case Heard.

The case of John H. Lynch against Alice B. MacDonald, as executrix of the last will and testament of Walter B. Case was also heard. This is an action for damages for alleged breach of contract. Plaintiff had a lease for the National hotel in Norwich. The roof of the building was out of repair and plaintiff moved out and asked damages for injury to furniture and loss of profits. At the close of the plaintiff's case relative to loss of profits, which was the second cause of action, the defendant moved that the case be dismissed. Motion granted as to second cause and denied as to the first. Briefs may be submitted within a reasonable time after the receipt of the stenographer's minutes.

W. B. Matterson of Syracuse appeared for the plaintiff and Judge H. C. Stratton of Oxford for the defendant.

FOR IMPERSONATING OFFICER

Two Young Men of Oneonta Were Arrested by State Troopers and Fired. Floyd Bennett and Clyde Rose of Oneonta, the Bural Times, were arrested Saturday night by state troopers on the charge of posing as peace officers. The complainant was William H. Hickley of Boston, who stated that Bennett exercised the functions of a constable or peace officer, arresting and Hickley on the 17th inst. under cover of process, and detaining him against his will.

The allegation was that Bennett and Rose stopped the Hickley car and informed the latter that a relative of Bennett residing at Oneonta had telephoned that he had been hit by an auto which he described and asked him to stop the party. Hickley, under protest, and denying that his car had struck anybody, accompanied the men back to where the man alleged to have been hit, and who was said to be an Oneonta boy was found, and after discussing the matter, Hickley gave him $5, not for damage but because he felt sorry for him, after which Hickley was released and allowed to depart.

"At Unadilla," says the Times, "after reflecting on the matter and thinking all was not straight, he inquired for an officer and in discussing the matter, another party from Connecticut said he had been apprehended in a like manner and he paid in $10. The matter was given the state policemen and they at once came to Otego and caused the arrest of Bennett and Rose. When arraigned before W. C. Sherman, Justice of the peace, both plead guilty to the charge and the court imposed a fine of $50 on Bennett and $25 on Rose, which was paid."

LOCAL MENTION.

Stores close at noon today—Thursday. Do your shopping early.

The Traver, Blair Company, Inc., has sold a Dodge Brothers touring car to Harry Edson of Laurens.

It is surprising the indifference to others manifested by so many who lunch by the roadside and leave their waste papers, pie trays, etc., where they happen to lunch to disfigure the highway. The state has placed at frequent intervals white barrels in which to place such refuse, yet many motorists drop their refuse and roll on merrily with apparently no thought of clearing up after the meal. One wonders if that is the way they do at home.

Elmira Here Today.

This is what the Deposit Courier Journal says about the fast Elmira team which will play the Cubs at Elmira park this afternoon at 4:15:

The Delicia Athletic club of Elmira have one of the best teams ever seen in action on the local diamond and they put up a fine exhibition of the national pastime, both in the field and at bat."

The management is certainly bringing the best teams possible to play the Cubs, and of course the Cubs will have to play every minute in order to win from these fast teams.

Given Substantial Increase.

It is gratifying to the many friends of Charles E. Westervelt, former secretary of the Oneonta Chamber of Commerce and now filling very acceptably a similar position at Auburn, Maine, to learn through a letter received by an Oneonta friend that the board of directors at Auburn at a recent meeting voluntarily increased his salary by $900, bringing it up to the handsome figure of $4,500. In addition to this increase, they voted him a month's vacation with pay of course. He is now spending the month at Trip lake in Maine.

Last Saturday morning while Karl Molinari of this city was cranking his Ford the machine backfired, breaking his right arm at the wrist. The bones were set by Dr. Brinkman and the fracture is now healing nicely. Two months ago Mr. Molinari sprained his arm in the same manner with the same car. The vicious beast should be muzzled.

TRIO GIVE FINE CONCERT

FOLLOWED BY ADMIRABLE LECTURE ON NEW WORLD SPIRIT BY MR. CHUTE.

Speaker Declares America Has Won by a Combination of Man of Action With Man of Dreams—Spirit of Pilgrims Not Their Blood Title to Knighthood, Says Speaker, America Must Remain Land of Opportunity He Says.

"The New World Spirit," the theme of the fine and inspirational lecture by Arthur Hunt Chute which closed the third day at the Chautauqua, was well received and although it occupied an hour and a half in its delivery few were there who would not have sat longer. Summarized, the New World Spirit is nothing else than the spirit of the Nazarine injected and a part of the life of the men and women of today. Unless we can get the vision and have it interwoven into the very fibre of American life then we shall fail to make of America that of which all those who have sacrificed to pass it on to us have dreamed and have fought, said the speaker.

"We can only serve, said the speaker, near the close of his address, not by patronizing, not by an occasional trip to the suns but actuated by the spirit of the Master, giving our very

PLANS TO BRING PLANES HERE

Bob Gordon, now at Liberty, hopes to arrange passenger-carrying business in Oneonta and vicinity.

From present indications, Oneonta will take its place on the aerial map next week, as Bob Gordon, proprietor of "The Gordon Flyers," who are touring the state giving exhibition flights and also carrying passengers, plans to bring his men here. Mr. Gordon called The Star on the long distance telephone last night from Liberty to inquire as to the prospects for coming to Oneonta. He was assured that he would undoubtedly find many people in Oneonta and vicinity who are anxious to fly and who would be glad of the opportunity to make a flight.

Gordon said that he would come to Oneonta Friday to look over the situation, and if he could find a suitable landing place he would bring out his outfit here next Monday or Tuesday.

There are two passenger-carrying airplanes in the party, which is composed of Aviators Gordon, Billy Coates and Frank Davies and two mechanics. All three birdmen, Gordon said, had long experience and had carried many people up in their planes. Coates was one of the aviators who dropped over from the air over the residence of the late Theodore Roosevelt at the time of his death.

At present the Gordon fliers are in Liberty, but should Gordon be able to make arrangements here he will probably fly the machines to Oneonta from that place. The chief problem is to secure a suitable landing place, and it is for this purpose that Gordon will make an advance trip here tomorrow. If he brings his airplanes here, they will probably remain in this section as long as there is a demand on the part of the public for rides in the air. As Sidney is the nearest town having a passenger-carrying aviator, it would appear that there is enough territory in Oneonta and vicinity to keep the Gordon fliers busy.

Mr. Robinson Makes Deposit.

D. E. Robinson, who recently received a favorable ruling from the Public Service commission requiring the trolley company to construct for him a switch at the Shadydale corner at West End and give him a tank car service, has deposited the $500 with the trolley company required by the order to cover the cost of constructing the switch. No action has been taken to prevent its construction thus far and the trolley company will proceed with the work unless stopped. It was stated last night that the company has no intention of appealing from the decision of the commission.

animal acts? To be sure. The Hagenbeck-Wallace show has the biggest and best animal performances in the world, as has been practically admitted by all for three decades. But animal acts do not constitute the entire program, by any means. Among the human performers are to be found the world's greatest skill, daring comedy — all will be seen under the big tent at Main and Luther streets.

The afternoon show will begin at 2 o'clock, with the doors opening an hour earlier, in order that all may have time in which to visit the immense menagerie. In the evening, the doors will open at 7 o'clock, with the show starting an hour later.

Returning from Visit to England.

Alfred Sutcliff, who in April last sold his farm on South Side and left for England to visit at his old home, has returned to Oneonta and he and Mrs. Sutcliff are now located in a house on "Baker Row," South Side. Mr. Sutcliff immensely enjoyed his visit to the Old Country, the first in eight years, and met many of his relatives and friends. He returned on the steamship Imperator, now the largest afloat.

CLARK FUNERAL TODAY

Body of the late James L. Clark reached Sidney yesterday—Bank's Patrons Are Loyal with Business
Going Ahead Normally—Banker
Was in Poor Health.

The body of the late James L. Clark, the president of the Sidney National Bank, who committed suicide at Bayonne, N. J., probably on Sunday last, arrived at Sidney late yesterday, accompanied by his brother, G. A. Clark, who went to New Jersey after it. The funeral services are to be held this Thursday, afternoon, at 3 o'clock, from his late residence on Liberty street in that village. His rector, Rev. Father Shoemaker, will officiate and interment will be made in Prospect Hill cemetery.

Business at the bank was going ahead normally yesterday with no excitement whatever manifested, the first sense of mystification resulting from the rash act having given place to sober judgment and with business men and others displaying every confidence in the assurances that came from both bank directors and examiners that the institution was "O. K." in every respect. This conviction was aided, perhaps, by the big piles of money that were seen within the banking quarters. A shipment from the Federal Reserve bank also helped to maintain public confidence.

When, too, remembrance of Mr. Clark when in health doubtless was a chief factor in the situation.

None of the representatives of the comptroller will discuss the bank other than to give assurances that everything is all right. The directors prefer not to talk for publication, aver-ring that there is nothing to discuss.
They have not even considered a meeting to elect a successor and do not know when one will be called.

About Sidney village the fact that Mr. Clark was in poor health and was unable to attempt the trip to New York city alone, and it was at his request that his friend, John E. Curtis, of Rockdale, and one of the bank's directors, accompanied him to New York, is becoming to be more appreciated, and while there is talk of unprofitable investments, they are cited more as contributing to his physical condition than for any other reason.

Without exception the patrons of the institution are praising his uniform kindness and good citizenship.

The Joyce stores, Unadilla, have received a big shipment of tapestry remnants running from 4 to 11 yards in a piece. These we can sell at half price and will fill by mail any amount.
This is a big bargain and we feel sure that the goods will last only a short time.

HELPFUL HAIR HINTS

Worthy the Attention of Everyone Who Would Avoid Dandruff, Itching Scalp, Gray Hair and Baldness.

"What will stop my hair coming out?"
Reply: Parisian sage (liquid form) is the best remedy for hair and scalp troubles; said to prevent baldness, grayness and dandruff.

"Before going to bed, I always rub a little Parisian sage into my scalp," says a woman whose thick, soft and shiny hair is greatly admired. This sage is a good keep-sake from calling out and makes it easy to dress attractively.

Beautiful soft, glossy, lustrous hair for those who use Parisian sage. It's inexpensive and sold by George S. Sibley, a good druggist everywhere, with guarantee of satisfaction or money refunded.

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY

YOSEMITE VALLEY, CALIFORNIA

THIS beautiful valley—not a part of Yosemite National park, by the way—is one of nature's most wonderful works of art. The valley is only eight miles long and less than two miles wide. The park embraces a domain about 20 by 48 miles. Here the supreme artist has chiseled and etched and painted an outdoor gallery of masterpieces unlike any other in the world. The Indians termed the place the Heart of the Sky Mountains and called it "The Vale of the Ahwahnee," and themselves Ahwaneeches, or "Children of Light."

The excellent features of the Yosemite are its waterfalls and sheer bold cliffs. Snow-waters from high mountains have found a wonderful variety and beauty of courses down the mountain walls to the Merced river in the valley below. These peculiar peaks strikingly resemble huge domes and range in height all the way from 1,200 to 6,000 feet. The falls which descend their rugged sides range in height from 350 feet—Vernal falls, which is only 35 feet wide at the top—to beautiful Yosemite falls, which, in three leaps, plunges half a mile and is said to be the highest waterfall in the world with anything like the same volume of water.

Standing on the summit of Sentinel Dome, the magnificence of the vista of the valley that bursts upon the eye compels silence. Perhaps no valley in the world combines so much that is so sublimely beautiful. It is "a bite of Paradise," sure enough.

Old Oil Well.

On a trip through western Virginia, George Washington came upon what he called an "oil spring." He was so struck with the possible usefulness of this oil that in his last will he called the special attention of his trustees to the matter. Right here, it might be said, was the first awakening of interest in petroleum production in the United States—an industry the development of which gave us an output of 356,000,000 barrels in the last year.

When Harvard Ran a Lottery.

Does it make you shudder to recall that in 1772 Harvard college, instead of asking for subscriptions from the alumni for a fund, raised £3200 by lottery "for building another hall for the students of Harvard college to dwell in?"—Boston Globe.

SUMMERING AT GOODYEAR

late Near Oneonta is proving Mecca to Residents of City and Vicinity. The manifold attractions of Goodyear lake, combined with the ideal summer weather, are proving irresistible to many Oneonta people and residents of other places. The camps along the lake are filled for the summer with owners and renters and a number of tents have been erected in convenient locations. Goodyear lake is increasing in popularity with every year and deservedly so, for few more desirable spots conveniently situated may be found in this part of New York state.

Following is a list of those who are occupying camps at Goodyear.

Claus Bratt and family of Oneonta are occupying their camp at Cliffside for the summer.

F. M. H. Jackson and family of Oneonta are occupying their camp at Cliffside for the summer.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cahune of Delhi and her nieces, Marion and Helen DeProse of Hudson, are spending several weeks at Camp Windymere, Cliffside, owned by W. H. Wilson and Charles Bowdish of Oneonta. Her sister, Mrs. A. H. Brownell, son, Stewart, and daughter, Elizabeth, of Oneonta, are spending several days at Camp Windymere.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Schwanner and children and the Misses Eva, Madeline and Hildegard Gaffney, all of Oneonta, are spending the summer at Hodges camp, Cliffside.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Ingerham and party of Oneonta are spending the summer at the camp of H. B. Gildermeister, Cliffside.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Miller and son, Jack, of Oneonta, are spending the summer at Cliff Haven camp, Cliffside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hoyt, son, Elbridge, and daughter, Mabel, are spending the summer at Tree Tops Lodge, Cliffside.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Miller of Worcester, Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Miller of Cornings and Miss Beatrice Prentice of Worcester are spending three weeks at Grand View camp, Cliffside, owned by C. E. Carrington of Oneonta.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Connell of Albany and party are spending a month at Pine Crest camp, Cliffside, owned by Miss E. A. Crowl of the State Treasury department, Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Meagley and sons, Norman and Donald, of Oneonta, Mrs. Meagley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Chandler of Binghamton, and Mr. Meagley's mother, Mrs. J. L. V. Meagley of Binghamton, are spending a week at Thornapple Lodge, owned by M. J. Hickey of Oneonta.

Wendell and Herbert Denton of Oneonta are spending the summer at Goodyear lake.

Miss Hazel May Wynn and mother, Mrs. Emma Wynn, of Oneonta, are spending the summer at their camp, Cliffside.

E. M. Ronan and daughters, Helen and Katherine, and P. F. Gallagher of Oneonta are spending the summer at Mr. Ronan's camp.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. VanWoert and sons, John and James, of Oneonta, are occupying their camp for the summer.

O. B. Rowe and family and F. N. VanWie and family are spending the summer at their camp.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lyle and son, William, of Ithaca, are spending the summer at the VanCleft camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Foster of Oneonta and daughter, Mrs. Walter Muller, of Roslyn, L. I., are spending the summer at their camp.

U. A. Ferguson and daughter, Helen, of Oneonta, are spending the summer at their camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Bastefio of Oneonta are spending the summer at their camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith of Oneonta have returned home, after spending some time at the camp of Mr. Ackley of West Oneonta.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hopkins and daughter of Unadilla are spending the summer at their camp.

Miss Anna Bunn and Miss Clara Bunn of Oneonta, Master Stewart Bunn of Richmondtown and Mrs. Charles Marsh of Oneonta are occupying the Stringham camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rote of Oneonta, Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Hanks and granddaughter, Dorothy, of Oneonta, are spending the summer at Dr. Hanks' camp.

Bert Swart and party of Oneonta are spending the summer at the Butterfield camp.

Dr. C. R. Marsh and Dr. F. J. McMenamin of Oneonta, with friends, are spending the summer at the Marsh camp.

J. Mayer and daughter, Marguerite, of Oneonta, are occupying their camp for the summer.

Dr. W. F. Brady and family of Oneonta are spending the summer at the Bolton camp.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Walsh and family are spending the summer at their camp.

Harold Taylor of Oneonta is spending the summer at Goodyear lake.

Remarkable Grove of Pines.

One of the many attractions of Goodyear lake is the grove of 500 pine trees, occupying nearly half an acre at Cliffside, set out by J. G. Hoyt of Oneonta. The growth of this grove has been remarkable. The trees, averaging about a foot in height, were set out seven years ago and at the present time range 12 to 15 feet in height and 5½ inches at the butt.

WAYS SUGGESTED FOR DIMMING CAR LIGHTS

Use of Sails or Ground Glass Substitute Favored.

Glare May Be Effectively Diminished
by Placing in Center of Lens, Immediately in Front of Bulb, a Spot of Mixture.

The rigid interpretation of local anti-glare headlight regulations in some localities has created a desire among motorists for some easy means for rendering the lights less bright without going to the bother and expense of substituting new lamp bulbs for those they are using.

One way out of the difficulty, says American Motorist, is the frosting of the lens or glass of the lamp. Dissolve 10 cents worth of epsom salt, dissolve it in about five ounces of water and flow the liquid over the glass on the inside. When dry the glass will be coated with frosting similar to ground glass.

A more permanent job can be made by using so-called "ground glass substitute," obtainable at photographic supply houses. Ground glass substitute should flow over the inside of the headlight glass by tilting the liquid evenly. One treatment with ground glass substitute will last for an entire season.

Instead of coating the entire headlight lens with ground glass substitute, the glare of the light may be very effectively diminished by placing in the center of the lens, immediately in front of the light bulb, a round spot of ground-glass mixture, thus:

Cut a paper mask with a round opening in it about two inches in diameter. When the paste is well dried flow ground-glass substitute over the circular spot not covered by paper and let it dry for about twenty minutes. Now soak the lens in cold water until the paper mask comes off, and nothing remains on the glass but the round spot of ground-glass substitute. There will be plenty of light left but the direct glare will have been eliminated.

Mrs. Charles Gage, of 249 Chestnut street, is in Meridian, where she has been caring for her aged mother, Mrs.

L. A. Kimball. Mrs. Kimball passed away yesterday.

Leland Schermerhorn, a navy wireless operator, who has been the guest for a few days at the home of Irving

Vanfassell, Lower Chestnut street, left yesterday to visit at his old home

Treadwell. From there he goes to Buffalo for a few days and then will
